

Tuesday

Lengthy coverage of visit on BBC. PM quoted on the urgent need for Super powers to talk to fill the empty seats etc. Then shown at wreath laying, in Parliament, in the Church and at the banquet. The clip of her speech was "Those of us who remember the horrors of war..." How Kadar transformed Hungary and ^{they} commented he sticks faithfully to the Moscow line as presumably endorsed this visit.

On 9.00 on Soviet news there was a short piece about Kadar meeting - no real comment.

In Alistair Burnett said that he did not extend an apology, it may have been a junior researcher

"but" not him, he maintains he asked a fair question.

FCO statement at 9.00 pm.

"On the question of an apology FCS would not have spoken as he did in the House without an adequate basis for doing so, in the light of the conversation this am between a member of the TV1 team and an FCO official, we accept however that there is clearly a misunderstanding between the FCO and Thames TV on this point."

News at Ten led on Ireland followed by FCS/ Sir Alan Bunnell question.
