My recollection is the same as

10 DOWNING STREET minutes.

Prime Minister (2) mt

Both Mr Tebbit and Mr Walker have reservations about the Chancellor's passage on residual shareholdings.

I was not aware that X in Mr Tebbit's letter had been agreed with colleagues. According to E(A) minutes, he was supposed, after consulting Treasury, to report on possibilities for disposing of Govt's holding in BAE.
